

INZALO SAFARI LODGE
WELGEVONDEN GAME RESERVE, LIMPOPO PROVINCE, SOUTH AFRICA

WHAT SETS US APART

- Inzalo Safari Lodge is a tented oasis in the spectacular Welgevonden Game Reserve, a 34 000 ha 'Big Five', malaria-free protected wilderness within the UNESCO Waterberg Biosphere of South Africa's Limpopo Province.
- Inzalo Lodge, a Zulu name suggesting "to be reborn", is situated along the crystal clear Sterkstroom River, where each of the five spacious tented safari suites provides panoramic views of the river and Sandstone cliff beyond.
- Privately owned and managed by Dave and Henriette Rieger, together with their passionate and dedicated team, Inzalo Lodge offers the opportunity to escape, explore and immerse oneself in the daily rhythm of the African bush.
- Safari experiences abound and included daily game drives, on-site birding, river walks, track and sign identification, bush walks, visits to San paintings, bush picnics and more.
- Conservation projects abound and the Welgevonden Game Reserve maintains a low human footprint, limiting the number of lodges and guests allowed within the reserve. Private vehicles may not enter, and the number of vehicles allowed at rare sightings is controlled.

LOCATION & ACCESS

- Inzalo Safari Lodge is located in the spectacular Welgevonden Game Reserve, a vast 34 000ha 'Big Five' protected wilderness within the UNESCO Waterberg Biosphere of South Africa's scenic Limpopo Province.
- A mere 2.5-hour drive or an easy 45-minute flight from Johannesburg into one of the reserve's two airstrips.
- Transfers are available by road or by air (charter) to Inzalo Safari Lodge. For self-driving, the total travel distance from Johannesburg is 270km.
- For charter flights, there are 2 airstrips on the reserve; Western Airstrip Welgevonden (closest proximity to the lodge, about 30 minutes to the lodge through the Reserve which is as good as a game drive) and Main Gate Airstrip.
- The flight duration is approximately 40 min from Johannesburg
