Hauora Spa

For over a century Wharekauhau has been regarded as much more than a lodge or a farm. The lands special spirit has captivated, inspired, and resonated deeply with those that have experienced Wharekauhau. It is a place where the thunderous Pacific waves meet the wind-swept black-sand beaches; A place where the mountains seem to rise up out of the ocean and kiss the clouds; A place that the naturally dramatic surroundings can influence healing, self-consciousness, and provide a distinct sense of place and calmness.

Hauora (Pronounced; Ho-ore-a), is a Maori philosophy of total health and well-being, and we believe it pays great tribute to the people, and energy of the land, past and present. The four dimensions of Hauora;

Taha Tinana	Physical Wellbeing
Taha Hinengaro	Mental & Emotional wellbeing
Taha Whanau	Social Wellbeing
Taha Wairua	Spiritual wellbeing
