General Information

It is a requirement that guests have adequate travel insurance to cover them for unexpected medical emergencies, cancellation for medical reasons, delays or cancellations due to weather conditions as a minimum.

Visas and specific entry requirements are your guest's responsibility. If you have any queries about obtaining visas please contact us.

National Parks and Conservation Fees may be subject to change and African Bush Camps cannot be held liable for unexpected changes to Park Fees, and Government Tariffs. Roads in the bush are rough and bumpy, guides occasionally travel "off road" and injuries can occur. African Bush Camps, their staff members, associates or agents cannot be held liable for any accidents or any damages. Most places booked for travel are in wild and remote parts of Africa with dangerous wildlife and often harsh terrain; hence you will be exposed to potentially hazardous activities. African Bush Camps, its associates, partners and staff will not be held liable for any injury, loss of life or damage whatsoever during and after the travel arrangements.

Most of our guides and staff are keen photographers and to enhance your experiences and enjoyment, photographs may be taken of your safari, some of which may be used for promotional purposes. African Bush Camps and its partners reserve the right to use these images without the consent of any one appearing in the images or photographs; however you can be guaranteed that no photographs of a compromising nature will be used for such purposes.

African Bush Camps is committed in ensuring that your travel arrangements remain according to plan. African Bush Camps and its partners and associates may alter, cancel or change travel arrangements at any time should they feel it justified in the interest of safety. Such changes will be communicated timeously in order for alternative arrangements to be made where necessary. It is assumed that the deposit payment and your final amount paid is because you have agreed to the terms and conditions set out by African Bush Camps, its associates and related companies and partners and thereby will not hold liable any claim against any person or organization as a result of any changes, cancellations, damage to one's property, injury, death and any other unforeseen occurrences whether it is due to negligence by one or more of our staff or any company.
Therefore, you have indemnified the various organizations and individuals aforementioned in any such events.
