Serengeti National Park

We operate Migrational Camps in the Serengeti National Park. The two identical mobile camps (with eight en-suite tents and a family tent) are set up in four locations during different times of the year as follows:

- ◇ NYASI MIGRATIONAL CAMP: (SOUTH) moves between the southern migration, to the northern migration, Lamai.
- ◇ SONGA MIGRATIONAL CAMP: (SOUTH) moves between the southern migration, to the northern migration, Kogatende.
- ◇ BOTH: (NORTH) in Lamai (accessed by Lamai airstrip) and Kogatende (accessed by Kogatende airstrip), the two camps are on opposite sides of the Mara River.

Each of the camps are pitched as a split camp whereby one side of the camp will have six tents and the other side will have two tents and the family tent. Each half of the camp faces in a different direction and is fully contained with its own lounge and dining facility, using natural habitat to ensure maximum privacy and each camp. The camps operate independently while sharing a back of house. Each camp has an option to make one half a 'Private Camp'. This is the smaller side with two tents and the family tent.
