

Dining Choices for Appellation at The Louise - Barossa Valley

Now in its thirteenth year, Appellation is the original "Contemporary Australian Regional Cuisine" restaurant in South Australia. Winner of dozens of awards for food, service, décor and wine, the restaurant is a member of global hospitality association Relais & Châteaux. Executive Chef Dan Murphy works continuously with his personally selected South Australian suppliers to source the very best fruits, vegetables, meats, seafoods, herbs and condiments to express on every plate what is representative of our local region, constantly changing the menu to utilise what is available at its peak of seasonal freshness. Guests may choose between a range of dining experiences:

The Menu

From Friday through Tuesday evenings Appellation guests are invited to indulge in the best of Appellation with our four course SET menu, paired with exceptional wines of Barossa Context or, alternatively they may curate their own experience from the SELECTIONS menu and explore our award-winning cellar by the bottle or the glass. The restaurant's wine cellar is one of the best in Australia, offering more than 400 selections by the bottle and over 40 wines by the glass.

Small Group Private Dining

Appellation offers its private dining space for groups of eight to fourteen guests. This area has its own arrival area, private entry, and a dining table near to but just nicely separated from the main dining area. Guests have their own coat room and private toilet area. Menus are developed to the intentions of the host, and rare and distinguished large format wines are the norm. This is a special occasion event space for close friends, families celebrating a wedding or foodies planning a gala evening.

Custom quotation
There is no charge for the private space. A good starting budget is about $200 pp.

Louise

Bar Adjacent, but fully separate from Appellation, our informal casual drinks and snacks area offers a welcome respite from a day of winery hopping and indulgence. Open seven nights, Bar Louise offers a wide range of cocktails, mocktails, craft beers, wines, aperitifs and after dinner drinks. Food choices include burgers made from premium local beef, lamb or pork, salads, cheeses and other comfort foods. Reservations not required.

Appellation restaurant is not open during its annual winter closure, 30th June 2019 through 1st August 2019, as well as some public holidays.
