Marketing Partners

The Louise Barossa Valley

Guests may learn about and obtain confirmed bookings at The Louise luxury vineyard retreat (and our on-site restaurant Appellation) through a variety of channels. We provide rate parity and comparable services through all our partners; and while we welcome direct contact with our on-site team of reservation professionals, we are equally pleased to receive queries and bookings via any of our partners.

Relais & Châteaux

Paris-based Relais & Châteaux is a member-led global hospitality marketing association focused on best-in-class food and wine experiences. More than 350 hotels with outstanding restaurants and more than 150 stand alone restaurants comprise this special collection. The Louise is one of the newest R&C members among the dozen top lodges in Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific. www.relaischateaux.com/thelouise

Luxury Lodges of Australia

The Louise is one of the founding members of Luxury Lodges of Australia, a collection of nineteen independent luxury lodges and camps offering unforgettable experiences in Australia's most inspiring and extraordinary locations. When planning a trip to Australia, the website for this marketing service provides valuable information about each property and useful tools to optimize transfers between lodges. This partner does not offer direct booking services. www.luxurylodgesofaustralia.com.au

Traveller Made

European-based Traveller Made is a consortium of bespoke travel planners and luxury hotels worldwide. The Louise participates with this partner's annual "Essence of Luxury" trade week to educate travel agents about experiential travel to Australia's Barossa Valley. www.travellermade.com/hotel-partners-asia-pacific/thelouise/

Tourism Barossa

The official website of the local regional tourism authority describes activities, events, and experiences in the most highly regarded wine region of Australia. www.barossa.com

Direct Contact to The Louise

The reservations desk at The Louise is staffed from 7am until 9pm daily, Central Australian Time. For enquiries received outside this period, we are pleased to accept a message and return your call the following day, including Sundays and holidays. During our annual winter closure each July, the reservation desk is staffed every other day.
