Remarkable Rocks

Kangaroo Island, South Australia

Kangaroo Island, one of Australia's great wilderness destinations, is best known for its magnificent coastal views, unique landscapes, uncrowded beaches and fascinating wildlife.

Mercure Kangaroo Island Lodge (KI Lodge) is nestled on a hillside amongst lush native bushland and has beautiful water views over Eastern Cove. Amid lush coastal vegetation, KI Lodge is designed to blend in with its natural surroundings.

We offer:

- * Relaxing natural environment
- * Conference room for up to 80 guests
- * Break out alfresco area
- * Comfortable accommodation
- * Stunning water views
- * Outstanding dining options
- * Transport, transfers and touring options

Kangaroo Island is located off mainland South Australia, a short 30 minute flight from Adelaide Airport or a 45 minute ferry journey from Cape Jervis and 2 hour drive from the Adelaide CBD. Vehicles can be taken on the ferry. Ask us for a quote for your journey over to Kangaroo Island.

Transfers from the ferry terminal or airport on Kangaroo Island are available. We utilise our own 10 seater air conditioned coach for smaller groups or for larger groups please contact us to obtain a quote.

Cosy during the cooler months with the open fire place and hearty winter menu and ideal during the warmer months with the fresh saltwater swimming pool and natural light filled conference room and bedrooms, there is no better place to hold your next conference or event any time of the year.

Reception

Hotel facilities

The Mercure Kangaroo Island Lodge has many facilities to compliment your conference, meeting or event. Steeped in history, experience a warm environment with friendly staff.

The large outdoor saltwater swimming pool, called "Our Dawn", was opened by swimming legend Dawn Fraser. Why not have a game of tennis on our full size court during your breaks or enjoy our environmental and nature walking trails on site and along the foreshore.

A highlight of your conference, meeting or event with us will be your dining experience in our on site restaurant, Reflections. Winner of the best dining experience on KI in 2017, your taste buds will be tantalised.

Our experienced Head Chef leads a team who pride themselves on unique design elements and exceptional artistic food presentation. Utilising fresh local produce, your dining experience will be a highlight.

An alfresco area adjacent the restaurant, provides a relaxing area to enjoy conference breaks or small cocktail parties with stunning views over the water.

Ask us about our Pelican feeding display and on-site walking trails to add something a little different to your conference or event.

All facilities are free of charge as part of your package.
