Nature Cruising

2-3 hours; advance booking essential
$1600 private charter, max 6-8 guests

Explore Pigeon Bay and the surrounding waters of Banks Peninsula in Annandale's own powerboat to view the friendly Hector's dolphins, fur seals in their natural habitat, bird colonies around the coastline and other wildlife. This cruise also provides an excellent aspect for you to see the fascinating volcanic topography and geology that created the Banks Peninsula millions of years ago.

Kayaking

2-3 hours; advance booking essential
$845 per couple, $75 per additional kayak

This premium excursion showcases the best of Pigeon Bay and coastal Banks Peninsula. Tailored to guest's fitness and weather conditions, your personal guide will share the natural beauty, key points of interest including flora, fauna, historical sites and fascinating geology.

Annandale's coast also boasts cormorant colonies, seal sunbathing shelves, shag nesting sites and is among the playground of penguins and Hector's dolphins. Time permitting, guests may also be able to enjoy hand-line fishing or gathering local kaimoana (seafood) off the rocks. On your return, you can download those special photos from the guide.
